Women in Song calling for entries.

Last year's Women in Song attracted large audiences into d'Arcy Doyle place and they enjoyed a great night of the very best women singers as part of the acclaimed University of Queensland Festival Club.

The Festival is now seeking expressions of interest from local ladies to join this year's fabulous line up.

Women in Song is a showcase of established and emerging local female talent as they present individual and collective performances as part of the city's Festival Club series.

Encouraged by the critical acclaim these singers have attracted and the audience response at all these shows, the festival will again feature this showpiece event at the 2008 Ipswich Festival.

The festival now encourages our most talented women vocalists to contact us and establish their expression of interest in being part of this wonderful group of talented female artists.

Our successful applicants will be selected to join the team and receive a generous performers' contribution, professional production support, and musical direction from our Director Jacqui Deveraux. Finally, the team will enjoy extensive promotion and performance opportunities.

Entries Close March 28th at 5 p.m. Please contact Ipswich Events Corporation for an "Expression of Interest" form, or to assist you with further enquiries.

You could be our next discovery!
